

Broken Truce Is Dividing Parley

Irish Conference Takes Abrupt
Adjournment Until Later—
Premier Is Censured in Parliament for Peace Measures Adopted.

By Ed. L. Keen
London—Rumors of an Irish rupture were rife here Friday when the peace conference at 10 Downing street adjourned after a brief session
which lasted a little over an hour.
The delegates who met at noon,
after the conference had been postponed an hour from its original starting time, left the prime minister's residence shortly after 1 o'clock.
It was announced they would probably meet again next Monday at 5 o'clock in the afternoon.
No official reason for the abrupt ending of what was expected to be a considerable session was given out. It was rumored disagreements over the alleged breaking of the truce had arisen.

Move Vote of Censure
A vote of censure against Lloyd George for negotiating with representatives of Sinn Fein will be moved in parliament by leading conservatives on the occasion of the debate on Ireland.

The motion will "deplore negotations with professed adherents to an Irish republic" and declare the prime minister's invitation, sent to Eamon
De Valera, to appoint plenipotentiaries for a conference, had not the sanction of parliament.

The conference was resumed at noon Friday. Progress was made by subcommittees since the last formal session, it was announced. Winston Churchill, Captain Guest, and Gen.
Trenchard met with Arthur Griffith and Duggan. One report was they had discussed imperial air stations in Ireland.

It was believed the maintenance of the truce would be the first topic of discussion Friday.
This was the main bone of contention in common Thursday where Sir Hamar Greenwood weathered a stormy cross fire of questions regarding the breaking of the truce
from conservatives behind him and liberals before him. In his own inimitable vaudeville manner, Sir Hamar drew applause from government supporters
as he deftly avoided questions "the might endanger the success of the conference." He admitted that Sinn Fein had been guilty of breaches of the truce.

4 STUDENTS DEAD IN AUTO TRAGEDY

Trip to Princeton Football Game
Ends When Freight
Wrecks Machine

Chicago—Four University of Chicago
students were instantly killed and one fatally injured when the automobile in which they were riding and a freight train crashed near Milford, Ill., Thursday night.

The students were on their way to Princeton, N. J., to attend the football game between the University of Chicago and Princeton Saturday.

The dead: Harold M. Skinner, Chicago; Stanwood Johnstone, Minneapolis; Thomas Minlaw, Chicago; Herschel Hopkins, Oregon, Ill.

Walter Rockless, Chicago, was perhaps fatally injured. One student,
Louis Roberts, escaped uninjured.
The six students chipped in $50 each Thursday and bought a used car to make the trip to see their college involve the east for the first time in football history.

Four cars of the train passed over the bodies which were badly mangled.
Hopkins was the driver.

MILWAUKEE COPS HUNTING FIREBUG

Milwaukee — Fire and police officials Friday started an investigation into the three incendiary fires reported here within the last three days.

From reports coming in to the police and fire stations, these officials believe a "firebug" is operating in Milwaukee. All the fires resulted from kerosene soaked rags placed under the weather boarding of frame buildings. In all three cases the houses were badly damaged on the exterior, while the inside was only slightly damaged.

OKLAHOMA GOVERNOR TO KEEP TRAINS MOVING

Oklahoma City, Okla.—"Railroads in Oklahoma must operate regardless of a strike."

Governor J. B. A. Robertson declared this ultimatum to railroad brotherhood officials here Friday in a statement addressed to all mayors and heads of chambers of commerce in Oklahoma.

The governor requested these officials to ascertain the names and present address of all engineers and firemen who would be willing to volunteer and serve the state in operating necessary trains, in the event of a strike.

U. S. EMBASSY IS GUARDED BY POLICE CORPS

French Reds Continue Death
Threats on Life of Ambassador Herriek

By Webb Miller
Paris—One thousand policemen
will guard the American embassy and the residence of Ambassador Herriek
Friday night to prevent a threatened march of communists and a demonstration against the United States in favor of the release of Sacco and Van Zettl, communists, convicted of murder in Massachusetts.

Steel blinds will be drawn at the embassy and Herriek's Rue de Messines home and armed guards will prevent communists who are to hold a monster mass meeting at the Salle Wagram from approaching either building.

Hundreds of threatening letters of protest against the sentence passed upon the convicted communists continued to pour in through the embassy
mail Friday.

Blowing up of the building where
the passport office and the reparations commission are housed, was threatened in one letter and extraordinary precautions were taken. "Cher con-tinuez avec la bombe outrage at Am-bassadeur Herriek's residence Wednesday evening, had Friday traced the package, in which the bomb was mailed to a Paris postoffice. A clerk
there remembers receiving it, but was unable to recall the appearance of the person leaving it.

The police announced Friday they believe an American was responsible for the attempted assassination of the ambassador.

A letter, four newspaper columns in length, addressed to President Harding regarding the Sacco and Van-Zettl trial, was published Friday in the Journal de Peuple.

Brussels—Police Friday dispersed a communist gathering in front of the American embassy here and made several arrests after the demonstration had become noisy.

London—Threatening letters, purporting to come from communists, demanding the release of Sacco and Van Zettl, convicted of the murder of a paymaster in Massachusetts, were received Friday by Ambassador Harvey.

Morsehauer here Friday to show

Drunken Knife Wielder Kills Two; Wounds Third

Chicago—A moonshine crazed white man, armed with a long butcher knife,
ran amuck in Chicago's "black belt"
early Friday, killing two persons and wounding a third.

In another section of the belt two
white men stabbed a negro policeman,
who attempted to stop an argument
in a cabaret.

The assailants escaped.
Police reserves and plain clothes-men were held in readiness to rush to the belt—scene of the race riots of over a year ago—in case feeling ran high because of the crimes.

Daley Jackson was the first victim of the crazed man. W. Kessner said they saw a white man follow her into an alley. Screams were heard and the woman was found with her throat cut.

MAY TRANSFER RAIL BATTLE TO CONGRESS

Failure of Public Sentiment to Halt Strike Will Bring
Stern Laws

ATTACH PENALTIES TO LAW

President Will Shape Policy to Use if Unions Precipitate
National Tieup

By David Lawrence
(Copyright, 1921 by Post Pub. Co.)

Washington—Railroad labor faces decisions far more important to its welfare than cuts in wages if a strike
should be called in defiance of the edict of the United States railroad labor board.

Having in mind all eventualities,
the administration is canvassing the alternatives in the event that a strike
should be persisted in after the railway labor board has done all that it can to adjust the controversy. For the fact is the Esch-Cummins law
which created the labor board did not provide penalties for violations of its decisions. President Harding hopes that public opinion will provide the penalty—that recourse to the courts will be unnecessary. Needless to say, that would be a solution more in harmony with the wishes of the president than any other. That's why he dismisses as premature all proposals which take into consideration a possible violation by the unions of
the mandate of the railway board.

Nevertheless there is a well-defined feeling in administration quarters
which recognizes that some kind of a policy must be pursued if, indeed,
public opinion does not compel respect for the decisions of the railway labor board. That policy unquestionably will be an amendment to the Esch-Cummins law imposing fines and imprisonment on all persons convicted of inciting strikes or lockouts in defiance of the decisions of the United States railway labor board.

Drastic Steps Inevitable
Such a drastic step is inevitable if a strike should be called. When congress had under consideration an anti-strike clause last year as a part of the Esch-Cummins bill, the senate voted in favor of it. The influence of organized labor defeated the clause
when the bill was in conference between the two houses and it was omitted from the law. There was at that time no psychological compulsion urging congress to act. If it is reasoned that the senate did actually adopt such a provision when no strike
was imminent and the matters discussed were purely hypothetical what would be the attitude of congress as a whole when the nation's food supply and transportation of commodities were seriously held up by a country-wide strike on the railroads?

The impression prevails that if President Harding asked that teeth
be put in the Esch-Cummins law so that the decisions of the railroad
labor board would be respected, there would be no difficulty in rushing such a measure through congress. The big question is whether the railroad labor unions will force the administration to such an extreme.

It's coming if there is a railroad strike. The fight will be transferred to the halls of congress where already there is enough sentiment
against a railroad tieup at this time
to insure passage of any measure
deemed necessary by the administration.

New York—A German scientist
claims to have discovered the definite origin of cancer, the mystery disease
which has defied science, it was learned here Friday.

Dr. Franz Kopsch, Berlin university, has informed friends in this country that while experimenting with frogs he accidentally discovered that cancer was transmitted from a larva
of the earth carried by angle worms.
Dr. H. A. Haubold, New York medical scientist and friend of the Berlin professor is now directing a series of experiments in New York laboratories through which it is hoped a practical method for prevention of cancer may be obtained.

"I cannot predict that this work
will result in the finding of the way to cure cancer—except perhaps in the early stages," Dr. Haubold said Friday.

But this discovery of origin is certainly a great step toward the solution of the mystery. It at least, throws a little light of fact
through the mystic air of theories.
This discovery has been proven. It is a fact—not a theory.

"Dr. Kopsch, while experimenting with frogs in Berlin ordered about fifty of them fed with house flies, angle worms and lettuce lice. Several of the frogs died and the doctor was astounded to find they showed exact symptoms of tumor. On investigation he learned they died of cancer. It was the true destructive cancerous growth of the body. This proved emphatically it was cancer."

"He found that the angle worms contained an earth larva which, when liberated during digestion in the frog caused the cancer. The house flies
and lettuce lice were not responsible.
"In humans this larva might be transmitted through fresh foods which are derived from the earth."

"It is possible," a chemical solution
can be introduced which would destroy this larva before it takes effect,
thus killing the cancerous action."

JUDGE BURNELL IS DEAD AT OSHKOSH

By United Press Leased Wire
Oshkosh—Circuit Judge Geo. W.
Burnell of this city, died here Friday
morning, after a short illness.

Judge Burnell was taken ill a few days ago with a severe cold which later developed into bronchitis and pneumonia. He became unconscious Wednesday night and remained in a deep coma until his death.

Judge Burnell was a veteran of the civil war and came to this city to practice law following the war. He was appointed circuit judge here in 1884, being appointed to that position
by the late Gov. Rusk.

Before search for the slayer was organized it was reported to police that a man of the same description had cut the throat of Louise Franklin. She was fatally injured.

Later, the same man attacked Mann-
is Williams, a hot tamale vender, and killed him.

Following Miss Jackson's murder,
her sister Susanne, eight years old,
was missing and has not yet been found. It was feared by police that the murderer had mutilated and hid her body.

Miles Sylvester Brown, patrolman, was stabbed by two white men in a cabaret shortly after midnight when he attempted to stop an argument between the men and a white woman.
Police said this case had nothing to do with the three other stabbings.

CHANCE NOW TO PREVENT SUFFERING THIS WINTER

Dozens of Appleton families will experience a winter of terrible suffering because other Appleton families, well situated financially, are refusing to respond to the appeal for help from the Salvation Army, according to Adjutant Biddeford, head of the army here. Many women and children will go hungry, wear tattered clothing and shiver in cheerless homes because their more fortunate fellow citizens refuse to heed the call of the needy.

Reports thus far in the Salvation Army campaign indicate that the drive will fall flat unless there is a more ready response to the appeals of the loyal band of workers which is making a heroic attempt to alleviate suffering during the winter. Only $4,000 is asked by the Salvation Army—with that sum it hopes to accomplish wonders—but thus far there is little hope that the money will be raised.

Suffering will be particularly intense and widespread the coming winter because of unemployment, according to Adjutant Biddeford. Dozens of fathers who lived economically while wages were high have seen their savings swept away during their period of unemployment and they are facing the winter with little or no money and no jobs.
Some of the men have barely enough money to pay their rent or taxes in order to keep their homes and they and their families must go hungry because they need what little money they have or can get to keep a roof over their heads.

The saddest part of it all is that many of these families would resist charity in any form if they were in any kind of a position to earn their own way. It is because of unemployment that they are needy, not because of laziness, Adjutant Biddeford said.

Scarcity of workers has handicapped the campaign thus far but it is hoped to interest more men and women in the cause. But there is no need for any one to neglect the good work. Unsolicited pledges may be made to C. W. Zelle, chairman of the campaign, at any time.

War Powers Of Nation To Be Invoked

Harding Is Expected to Call
Conference of Both Sides to Effect a Settlement Before
Strike Starts—Mobilize
Truck Fleet.

By Herbert W. Walker

Washington—Resort to the war powers of the federal government as a means of keeping the nation's transportation system in operation in the event of a rail strike was considered by President Harding and his cabinet Friday, it was learned on high authority.

The president was advised by cabin
officials that under the national defense act which does not expire until a formal proclamation of peace is issued, army reserves could be called out to operate the trains.

Secretary of War Weeks reported to the cabinet that he has a complete tabulation of reservists throughout the country who are skilled in various branches of railroading. This force, together with volunteers who have already offered their services,
in large numbers, would be sufficient,
officials believe, to operate enough
trains to carry food and fuel into the large centers.

Direct intervention by the president
appeared inevitable as the result of the failure of the railway labor board
Thursday to induce the brotherhood
chiefs to rescind the strike call.

High administration officials admitted that as yet no definite program
of action to mediate the strike has been framed.

The president, it was believed, is considering taking one of these two steps:
1. Summoning of the brotherhood chiefs and the railroad executives to the White house for a conference.
2. Appointment of a special executive mediation commission with Secretary of Commerce Hoover, and Secretary of Labor Davis as probable members.

Organize Motor Transport
Secretary of Commerce Hoover Friday indicated that the first step by the federal government will be to press into service as partial substitutes for the railroads the millions of motor trucks throughout the country.

With this vast reservoir of transportation supplemented by trains
operated by men who refuse to strike
or act as strikebreakers government
officials are confident enough essential commodities can be moved to prevent any suffering throughout the country.

"Ten years ago a railroad strike on an extensive scale would have paralyzed the country within three days,"
said Hoover. "Now, since the coming of the motor truck and improved
roads, the country probably can exist
for a month."

Governors to Help

The department of commerce is planning to suggest to governors of all states that preparations be made
to commandeer trucks to move food,
fuel and other supplies in the event
the strike materializes. A complete record of all trucks in the hands
of state authorities, because of motor car license system.

Interstate movement of supplies
would be directed by the federal government, but the main responsibility for keeping the thousands of communities supplied with commodities necessary to their existence would be placed in the hands of the governments, who would be assisted by mayors and Hoover's plan.

STRIKE SEEMS MORE CERTAIN THAN EVER

President Harding is today
confronted with the task of saving America from the great railroad strike scheduled to start
Oct. 30.

All efforts at mediation having failed, the next step is up to the president. Harding meets with his cabinet Friday to decide what to do.

Railroad brotherhood chiefs arrived in Cleveland Friday after the break up of the mediation
meeting with the rail labor board
in Chicago and immediately set about perfecting plans to make
the big strike a complete success.

The rail labor board members,
remaining in Chicago said they did not know what the next move would be.

Meanwhile, Secretary of Com-

ready to walk out Saturday the

MORGAN LAUNCHES FIGHT TO SMASH BADGER TRUSTS

Tobacco Companies Are First
Victims Against Which
Fines Are Asked

Madison—Attorney General William
J. Morgan got under way the first of his trust busting suits Friday.

Action was started in the circuit court of Milwaukee, court by the state's attorney Friday to break up
the Wisconsin Association of Wholesale Tobaccoists, an organization which, he alleges, is a combine of 12
large tobacco companies which are controlling prices to dealers and consumers.

The concerns listed in the action
are the P. Lorillard company, American Tobacco company, Scherff Tobacco company, Badger Tobacco company, A. S. Goodrich company, Lewis-Leidersdorf company, Peckar-
sky Brothers company, Cavalla
Tobacco company, Schmidt Brothers,
Stein Brothers Tobacco company,
Sher and Vinograd, and the Association of Wholesale Tobaccoists.

Fines of $5,000 against each of the companies are asked. Morgan also announced that action would be instituted immediately against the P.
Lorillard company and the American Tobacco company to forfeit their licenses to do business in the state of Wisconsin.

Morgan's trust busting is instituted
under the Morgan anti-trust law passed by the last session of the legislature. The action Friday morning against the alleged tobacco combine is the first of a number that he and his staff have been working on through the summer.

Special Assistant Attorney General
G. F. Clifford, Green Bay, who was secured by Attorney General Morgan
under the appropriation of the law,
has been gathering evidence against trade and price fixing combines for several months. Conferences have been held with federal authorities
and a working agreement reached between the state department and Federal Attorney General Daugherty.

"This is just the beginning," Morgan said Friday. "At least five other combinations have been investigated
and we have the goods on them."

SELECT LEADERS IN DOUBLE DRIVE FOR WOMANS CLUB

Two Committees Will Have Charge of Finance and Membership Campaigns

Ward chairmen for the membership and finance committees for the Appleton Womens club drive for $10,000 and 1,500 members were appointed Thursday afternoon and Friday morning. Each chairman and the workers whom she has been able to enroll for, the drive since her own appointment will meet at Appleton Womens club room at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon for conference with Mrs. D. O. Kinsman, president of the club and Mrs. S. C. Shannon, finance chairman. The chairmen for the membership drive include: Mrs. H. F. Heckert, first ward; Mrs. O. N. Zepherin, second ward; Mrs. W. F. Winsey, third ward; Mrs. N. M. Engler, fourth ward; Mrs. Edgar Seamon, fifth ward; Mrs. Ewald Elias, sixth ward. The finance chairmen are: Mrs. Roy Marston, first ward; Mrs. Fern Meyer, second ward; Mrs. Otto Wolter, third ward; Mrs. R. J. Hackeworth, fourth ward; Mrs. John Goodland, sixth ward. The chairman for the fifth ward has not yet been appointed.

The Saturday meeting is called to enable all the workers to be familiar with the plan of the campaign which is a combination of the two annual drives for members and for funds with which to carry on the community program of the club. At a meeting in the parlor of Hotel Appleton Wednesday evening, the finance and membership committees decided to avoid duplication of effort and waste of time by combining the two campaigns, having two solicitors, one from each committee call on members of the club for their renewals and additional contribution. The membership committee will take over the solicitation of funds from friends of the club who are anxious to contribute to the work which Appleton Womens club is doing in the community.

Mrs. D. O. Kinsman will outline all the information in regard to Appleton womens club, what it has done for its members, what its recreation department is doing for girls, what each of its five departments can mean to the community and the individual members.

"Old Nick" Was Loose At Barn Dance, Charge

"A wild time was had by all." That is the way some three or four hundred guests described the barn dance at the Mike Wittman farm home Menasha, Wis., Thursday night. According to reports, several men, imbibing too freely of moonshine, mixed in a fight during the evening. Mr. Wittman ran out to stop the brawl and was followed by Mrs. Wittman who carried their little child in her arms. In the melee the child is alleged to have been struck over the head and her scalp cut. Inquiry at the Wittman home Friday morning failed to elicit information concerning the seriousness of the child's injuries.

Albert Syring, Menasha, charged that his automobile was stolen from the party and he has not recovered it. It was said that another car also was stolen but the owner learned which way the thief went, followed him in another car and overtook him in a long chase. The thief it is alleged, was thoroughly beaten up and then released.

R. O. Emmons, formerly of Stevens Point, has located in Appleton to become manager of Kaufman's ladies ready to wear store. Mrs. Emmons will be head of the silk underwear department, a new feature in the store.

STATE OFFERS HELP TO RURAL READERS

New Law Makes It Possible for Rural Residents to Get Library Books

Residents of the rural districts of Outagamie county may receive more efficient service than has ever been possible before because of the limited funds appropriated for the upkeep of county libraries. If the board of supervisors chooses to take advantage of the newly created county library law.

The discussion of new legislation relating to the libraries of the state was one of the features of the conference of the Wisconsin Library association in Milwaukee last week.

Fortune Telling. Favors. Fun. Halloween Community Dancing Party. Given by Woman's Club, Friday, Oct. 21st, Armory. Orchestra, Valley Country Club. Tickets 50c.

Under the new law, various means of supplying the county with books may be utilized. The one which seems most popular however, in the instances where the county has a library, is for the county to contract with the largest library in the county, to supply books at a charge agreed upon between them. The law states further that if such a contract is made between the library and the county, books are to be sent to any one in the county upon application.

Appleton library is known as the county library, it being the largest library in the county. At present people living in the county who reside in the vicinity of Appleton are permitted to draw books.

"This system is quite unfair to the citizens of Appleton as the people of the county provide nothing toward the support of the Appleton library and the expense is placed upon Appleton taxpayers," declared Miss Florence Day, head librarian. However, that "would be taken care of under the new method as the fee paid to the local library by the county would permit the purchase of duplicate copies so that books could be sent to the rural districts without depriving the Appleton readers of books.

"We are very much in favor of this plan which was recently inaugurated by state legislation," said Miss Day, "as more efficient service can be given and a greater number of persons served than is possible under the present system."

Southern Frogs Shiver In Cold Northern Air

"Ain't no nice being a big toad in a little puddle if you have to die of homesickness," croaked one big whopper.

"Rather die of homesickness than freeze to death in this chilly water," coughed the second.

The third was too far gone to even sneeze. Such is the attitude of the three remaining big frogs which were sent to the Lawrence biology department from Louisiana. The frogs are four or five times the size of an ordinary small species, measuring from 12 to 15 inches from head to foot. Students in the laboratory dissected four of the 12 which arrived early in the week. Several others have died as a result of the long trip and the temperature of the water. Of the three which remained on Thursday, one was nearly ready for Frog Heaven and the other two were none too lively.

INGOLD LEADER IN STADIUM CAMPAIGN

Arthur J. Ingold, Jr., of this city, who is at present a senior in mechanical engineering at the University of Illinois, has been appointed chairman of the out-of-state committee in the stadium drive carried on at that university.

The campaign for $2,000,000 will be brought to a close Nov. 12, by which time the Illinois alumni in all parts of the country will have had a chance to contribute.

The stadium will seat 75,000 people and will be the finest structure of its kind in the country. Besides being a place for the different sports, the stadium will have columns dedicated to Illinois men who gave their lives in the great war and will serve as a memorial to them.

"I paid an international authority on diseases of the stomach $1,500 and he didn't do me five cents worth of good. I have been taking Spas in Europe as well as this country and have spent about fully $30,000 fruitlessly in search of a cure for my stomach trouble. Naturally I lost faith in any remedy for my case. My wife's brother had taken Mayr's Wonderful Remedy and praised it so highly that I tried it and am now entirely rid of that trouble. It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. THOUSANDS OF THIN PEOPLE HAVE SPLENDID APPETITES YET FAIL TO PUT ON FLESH AND GAIN WEIGHT—WHY?

Strong, Straightforward Advice To Thin, Underdeveloped Men and Women

If you are thin, scrawny and undeveloped, if your face is peaked and your cheeks and neck exhibit unsightly hollows, it's almost certain that your nervous system is at the bottom of the trouble. You can eat three, yes four, substantial, fat producing meals a day but as long as your stomach has an insufficient supply of nerve force this food you eat will pass out of the body with little if any benefit. In order to assimilate properly the nourishing food you eat and convert it into healthy tissue and fat the nerves that control the process of digestion and assimilation must be put in first-class shape and until that is done you might just as well quit trying to put on flesh. Your system is starving for something that will turn the food you eat into healthy stay-ther flesh and it can only be done in one way—by correcting faulty nervous digestion.

Thin, nervous, run-down people, however, with impoverished blood and half-starved looks are hailing with delight a quick and certain maker of solid flesh called EVANS' TRIPLE PHOSPHATES that is unequalled for repairing faulty digestion and correcting nervous digestive troubles. In fact the makers of Evans' Triple Phosphates guarantee that one month's treatment will increase your weight by several pounds and within ten days make you feel like a new being, full of ambition, vigor and a desire to accomplish things. Leading druggists everywhere have agreed to supply Evans' Triple Phosphates and guarantee it to do just what is claimed for it or money refunded. Caution: While Evans' Triple Phosphates accomplishes wonders in nervous digestive troubles and as a general nerve tonic, it should not be taken by anyone who objects to a few additional pounds of solid stay-ther flesh. adv.

RIGHT ATTITUDE TOWARD THE SCHOOLS

The decision of the school board to recommend establishment and erection of junior high schools, to be followed by the consolidation of all public schools in the city, is the result of progressive educational leadership in Appleton. It is significant that while other cities of Wisconsin are engaged in academic discussion of school improvement and are unable to reach conclusions or to take initiative, Appleton acts.

Changes from settled policies are not easily brought about. It is hard to break down in most instances public indifference and the inclination to regard what is as satisfactory and to let well enough alone. Furthermore, change generally invites expense. Improvements cost money and cannot be had for the mere wishing. It will cost Appleton money to provide facilities for the junior high school system. Even the union plan may indirectly necessitate expense, but in the long run both changes will spell economy and vastly greater efficiency.

We must measure the value of our public schools by their results, not by the money it costs to sustain them. The cheapest schools in point of dollars and cents may be the costliest investment of a city. On the other hand the most expensive schools may in reality be cheap measured by the dividends they yield in public service. Money spent wisely, judiciously, constructively, on the public schools brings greater returns than that spent for any other purpose in public affairs. By providing adequately for junior high schools and concentrating education under unified administration we shall greatly enhance the standards of our public schools and contribute to their higher efficiency. There is nothing conjectural about results. Sound educational policies are the product of long experience, scientific investigation and thorough experimentation.

The best schools we can create and maintain will be the cheapest and the most valuable. They will contribute more to Appleton's true advancement, to its security and to an assured future than anything else. We congratulate not only the school board but the executives and teachers who have labored consistently and persistently to bring about this greatly needed improvement in our public school system. It appears that realization of their plans is near at hand.

THE INFLUENCE OF THE MOVIES

The daily attendance in motion-picture theatres all over the United States is estimated at 13,500,000, or virtually ten per cent of the total population. In the industry itself the aggregate investment is $250,000,000, and the producing companies turn out 700 features, 250 comedies and 500 miscellaneous pictures in a year. These few statistics give some idea of the immensity of this art industry and of its potential influence on the minds of men, women and children in every hamlet, town and city.

There never has been a greater force for good or evil, with the exception of the daily press, than the cinema. The motion-picture is a moral and educational force, which makes an indelible impression on ten per cent of the whole population every day, and naturally the spectators are influenced in forming ideas of life and adopting principles of personal conduct.

That serious-minded persons should insist that an art which has such a wide and effective appeal should observe high standards of morality in its productions is not surprising. Nations decay more often and more surely through their pleasure than from any other cause.

Disregarding opinions as to censorship and regulation, it would seem that the popularity of the motion-picture could be maintained as certainly by clean productions which gratify public taste as by immoral or insidious pictures which please some persons of perverted disposition. With most of the people it is simply a question of entertainment, diversion or interest, and the majority, as long as these requirements are met, would be better satisfied with the good than the evil. Were this idea more generally followed the demand for censorship would be automatically settled. If it is not followed censorship and regulation will gradually force reform.

WHO PAYS FOR ROAD BUILDING?

State road taxes are a small share of our total road taxes. County road taxes required to be raised by law to meet state funds also make up a small share of the total road taxes. The common impression that the state directly or indirectly requires a levy of heavy road taxes is without foundation. Most of our road taxes are raised by the local units of their own free will.

Eliminating town roads, there are three major sources of road funds in Wisconsin; the federal government, the state and the county. Under what is known as the state trunk highway act of 1917, amended in 1919, there are funds available from three sources for highway construction in a given year; the federal government allots $1,700,000 to the state of Wisconsin for road building; the state must and does raise an equal amount by a general property tax amounting to slightly over one-third of a mill. The counties raise an equal amount by a county general property tax.

Under the state aid law the state each year appropriates for road building the sum of $785,000 to be distributed among the counties. This money is taken from the general fund which is made up of railroad and public utility taxes, income taxes, etc., and does not come from a general property tax. The counties are required to match this on a 40-60 basis, raising $1,157,500 by a general property tax. In addition to the above the state every year allots from the general fund $100,000 for special bridge work. Summing up the entire matter we find the following: There is a state property tax for roads of $1,700,000. The counties by law are required to raise $2,877,500 to meet the state funds allotted to them and usually do this by a general property tax. The state from the general fund allots $885,000 for road and bridge work but this does not come from a general property tax.

The query is immediately raised that if the state requires us to raise only $7,162,500, how is it that this year we are spending $24,000,000? There are two reasons for this; the first being that the war held back road construction, and this year we are spending money which normally would have been spent in 1918, 1919 and 1920. The unexpended construction balance January 1, 1921, was $7,349,700. The big reason is the fact that the counties are voting large sums of money which they are not required to vote by state law. For instance, this year $7,000,000 was spent under local county bond issues. Beyond and above that, the counties at their annual meetings in November, 1920, voted funds far in excess of the state law requirements. Under state law they were required to raise $5,737,448 for highway construction and in addition to this they voted to raise $9,205,737 or 160 per cent more than they were required to vote.

This shows that a large part of our road taxes are raised by the local units of their own free will and are not chargeable to any state law. So far as the automobile licenses are concerned they are practically all returned to the counties for maintenance. After deducting the state secretary's cost of administration, which amounts to less than $150,000 a year and the highway department's cost of administration which amounts to $165,000 a year, the balance is allotted to the counties for maintenance.

Whether we look at highway construction from the standpoint of voluntary local taxation, enforced state taxation, or state or federal aid, it takes first place in the value of our public improvements and the direct returns they yield. In no sense can road construction in Wisconsin be regarded as a burden upon the people, and yet our road policy is sufficiently broad and liberal to keep us abreast of the country in highway development.

THE JOYS OF KARELLING

Today a reader occupies the pupil:

Dear Dr. Brady:
Your recent article on sick headaches (migraine) and their baffling causes leads me to bear testimony to relief I have found. For many years I have been a sufferer from sick headaches or migraine seizures and have tried all the well known remedies without success.

Having an inherited tendency toward overweight, and a very strong personal dislike for it, I decided to try the Karell regimen for reducing, as laid down by you, and I wish to share my satisfaction and delight with all others afflicted as I was.

The first two days knocked off five detested pounds; and now that I am nearing normal weight the reduction is less rapid—about two pounds a week. I Karell every other day, and enjoy it. For those who hesitate thru fear of personal discomfort or the dread of hunger pangs, let me say the frequency of the Karell "meals" prevents all discomforts of that sort.

I am steadily feeling better, and on my Karell days have more pep and capacity for pleasure and work than I have known for many years. Long walks and strenuous exercises are impossible for me on account of bad vein conditions in my legs, but thanks to this method I can keep fit without the "two miles of oxygen" which you have so earnestly urged. And, let me add, since I've been Karelling I have had no headaches.

To have accomplished two such splendid results in two short months impels me to commend this sensible procedure to the consideration of all who are afflicted with sick headaches and overweight.

Sincerely yours,

Mrs. W. W. F.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Mental Dyspepsia

I have nervous indigestion. Should I have the old stumps of teeth extracted?—K. C. C.

Answer—The title you give your trouble is a misnomer. Rather call it mental dyspepsia, for it really signifies nothing but inability to comprehend that there is something definitely the matter. We doctors speak of "indigestion" when we are at sea as to the actual diagnosis, and we call it "nervous" when we find the patient is worrying about it. Your doctor and dentist should consult together about what is left of your teeth, and decide how many, if any, stumps should be pulled. There should be a 50-50 arrangement between doctor and dentist. I mean as to the decision whether to extract. Often it is just the other way—the doctor ruthlessly orders a lot of more or less useful teeth sacrificed without conferring with the dentist, and the dentist takes about nine-tenths of the patient's ready cash without a by-your-leave to the doctor.

A Bleached Blonde's Mother

Three years ago my mother decided that I should be a blonde. So, as I rather liked the idea myself, I soon joined the peroxide brigade. My hair isn't so very bleached—it is a nice color, a golden brown, but you can't imagine how I hate it. Can I use something to restore its natural color?—G. T. B.

Answer—Patience only. You will have to wait till the hair grows out again.

That Mysterious Friend

A friend asserts positively that a copper wire worn about the wrist and opposite ankle, is a sure cure for rheumatism; no matter which wrist or ankle, so long as they are opposite. Is there anything in this cure?—A. C. P.

Answer—A friend is a practical joker sometimes. There are probably more such "sure cures" for "rheumatism" than there are diseases masquerading under the meaningless term of "rheumatism."

Cold Bath at Bedtime

Should a person take a cold bath before going to bed? Should the room be comparatively warm or cool? How long should the party stay in the bath tub?—F. C. B.

Answer—1. Not as a rule—at least I shouldn't care for one myself at bed time. 2. Comparatively cool. I don't care for bath tubs at all.

Paraffin Versus Surgery

You informed a querist that injections of paraffin under the skin in the treatment of rupture is a dangerous procedure, and seldom produces the desired cure. Does that apply to facial operations as well?—M. M.

Answer—If you mean operations to correct cosmetic faults, no. If you mean injecting paraffin to fill out hollows or defects about the face, that is even more dangerous and unsatisfactory.

Biting the Nails

My daughter, aged 15, is always biting her fingernails. Please tell me how I can stop this.—Mrs. E. T. A.

Answer—The nails should be carefully manicured three days each week by a skilled manicurist, for a period of about a month. The purpose is psychological, and the result is to overcome the habit in any case.

Play For Congressmen

By Frederic J. Haskin

Washington, D. C.—Official Washington is at last going to become acquainted all around. Army chiefs are going to hobnob with congressmen. Secretaries of departments will chat amicably with senators and congressmen. What is even more significant, senators and congressmen will meet representatives, and each will, perhaps, learn something of the other's work and his view.

Apocryphon is going to take the place of the old-fashioned system of antagonism between the branches of government.

This millennium-like situation is to be brought about by the Congressional Country club which will be opened about the first of December.

The need for such a club to promote better acquaintance is real. When congressional committees call in department officials to explain departmental matters at hearings, the atmosphere is apt to be slightly chilly. The congressman, with his eye on the federal budget, suspects the department chief of wanting more money or clerks than is necessary. The official testifying at the end of the committee table looks around and wishes that these lawmakers would have to run his organization for a week. They show more intelligence about it if they did.

The Congressional Country club is to break the tradition that different branches of Government speak different languages. On the golf links, in the swimming pool, on horseback, or around the open fire, statesmen who have glared at each other may soon be swapping experiences and jokes.

The new club is needed in Washington from another point of view. The Capital has fewer country clubs than almost any city of its size. Waiting lists of the three large clubs are always long. It is said that the city could easily build up a new club from these lists alone.

A Needed Club

The congressional club with its prospective membership of 1,500, will partly relieve this tense situation. All Congressmen and their wives, department heads, and accredited press representatives will be eligible. A few hand-picked outsiders will also be admitted on recommendation of members. On the whole, though, it is to be a congressional club with only Congressmen for its officers and board of directors.

The Congressmen's new playground consists of more than 400 acres of valuable land nine miles out of Washington. A big, fourteen-room country home, now on the grounds, is to be the clubhouse until a new one can be built. Bungalows are to be constructed, too, on the property, for members who may wish to rent suburban homes and be close to the golf course.

Another feature that is played up by the members who are starting the club is the scenery. The privilege of looking out on the historic Potomac and the Virginia hills is alone said to be worth the initiation fee. Moreover, the highway that runs by the grounds is the old Braddock Road on which Braddock is said to have marched with George Washington before the Revolution.

With the picturesque background, the club hopes to develop its property into an estate that will compare favorably with the best country clubs anywhere.

Play For Congressmen

By Frederic J. Haskin

The prospects for a golf course unusual. Overzealous Emmet, the well known golf architect, may lay out the course. When Mr. Emmet was shown the grounds he was so impressed with the golfing possibilities that he went home and wrote the following, which sounds like a testimonial, though it isn't meant for one.

"In all my experience," writes Mr. Emmet, "I have never seen a finer property for the purpose, with such a variety of contours."

The country club is one of a number of projects which have been attempted to brighten the lives of members of Congress.

Congressmen Stay Here
A Congressman has to spend almost all of his time in Washington nowadays. Once a representative of the people could be reasonably sure of a long session and a short session at set intervals. Now, extra sessions follow so close on the heels of adjournment that the lawmakers have time only to snatch a few days vacation.

Getting back home is more a duty than a pleasure, at that. The politician must keep his voters reminded that he is still struggling valiantly for his constituents, even if his name isn't in the papers so often as might be wished. After this duty is hastily performed, the breathless lawmaker is back at it again. Lawmaking has become a year-round job. And as the members begin to realize that they are not camping here for a few months any more, they begin to agitate for some of the comforts of home.

This country club has so many members promised that it seems sure of success. The list of members already includes Secretaries Hoover, Denby and Mellon; William Burns of the Secret Service; Frank White, treasurer of the United States; and John Bartlett, President of the Civil Service Commission.

Another, less promising project, is a hotel for Congressmen. This is a needed institution, no doubt, but it depends on a bill to bring it into existence. Anything of the sort that has to be legislated over is almost surely doomed from the start.

The hotel for homeless Congressmen was suggested as a means of relieving statesmen of their housing troubles so that they could concentrate on affairs of state. It was to offer them a home conveniently close to the Capitol, at a reasonable rental.

The hitch to this academic plan was the necessity of a fund to establish the institution. Later, it might be expected to pay for itself. Congress has not had the time, or possibly the nerve, to ask for this appropriation, and the hotel, which a great many Congressmen heartily endorsed, is still a paper proposition.

Another project, now well established, is the congressional gymnasium where Senators and Representatives can take setting-up exercises and obtain advice as to their physical fitness.

That Congressmen are settling down to be residents of the District of Columbia is a hopeful sign for the District. Washington is dependent on what might well be called the charity of Congress. Without representation at the Capitol, the city must submit its affairs to the approval of a committee of men from states in all parts of the Union.

In the past, these Congressmen have not as a class taken a strong interest in the Capital's welfare. Now that they and their families must live here, they are beginning to care for the city as their own.

Q. Who founded the French Academy? A. N.

A. The French Academy, which is the highest of the five Academies which constitute the French Institute, was founded by Cardinal Richelieu in 1635. It was reorganized in 1816. The other academies are the Academy of Inscriptions and Belles Lettres; Academy of Sciences, Academy of Fine Arts; and the Academy of Moral and Political Sciences.

Q. Is it true that ex-soldiers are allowed to pass Civil Service examinations with a lower mark than anyone else? G. B.

A. By a special act of Congress, ex-service men are given preference in Civil Service examinations. A person taking a Civil Service examination must make 70 per cent; an ex-service man must make 65 per cent or over.

Q. Just what is an ambergris? E. G. D.

A. Ambergris is a substance of the consistency of wax, found floating in the Indian Ocean and parts of the tropics and also as a morbid secretion in the alimentary canal of the sperm whale, which is believed to be in all cases its origin. It is white, ash-gray, yellow or black, and often variegated with light marble. The floating masses are sometimes from 50 to 225 pounds in weight. It is wholly volatilized as a white vapor at 100 degrees C. is soluble in oil, but resists acid, ether, ammonia, and hot alcohol. It is highly valued in perfumery.

Q. What is an attestation clause? T. H.

A. The clause which precedes the signature of witnesses to documents which must have such verification of signature is known as the attestation clause.

A Resume of American Newspaper Opinion

Panama Tolls and World Peace

The question of Panama Canal tolls, which the NEW YORK WORLD (Dem.) calls "one of the inscrutable mysteries of American politics," is apparently the last subject on earth, as editors see it, which should have been brought up in Washington just now. To most American papers the action of the Senate in passing, on the eve of an international conference, a bill which is generally construed as violating a treaty, "passes all understanding," as the NEW YORK GLOBE (Ind.) puts it. Time has not served to make the exemption of American ships from payment of tolls any more acceptable from an economic viewpoint to the great number of papers which oppose the policy. But in addition to the old arguments against it there arise now the newer aspect of the definite danger that lies in what practically every writer for the opposition calls American "bad faith" in disregarding a treaty "just when we happen to have visitors" to use the JOHNSTOWN DEMOCRAT'S (Dem.) homely expression.

Exempting American coastwise shipping from payment of canal tolls, the CHICAGO TRIBUNE (Ind. Rep.) remarks, is substantially "obliging a monopoly by tearing up a treaty," which the NEWS (Ind.) of the same city considers from every standpoint "a monument of bad policy erected upon a pedestal of bad faith."

It is possible, the NORFOLK VIRGINIAN-PILOT (Ind. Dem.) points out, to interpret the Hay-Pauncefote treaty in two ways, "one of which does not recognize exemption as a violation of the compact," while the other "is a basic premise paper, continuing the basic premise of this sort of dogging is that if a treaty provision is capable of two constructions the construction favoring the United States is always right and the construction favoring the other party is always wrong."

Further, the NEW YORK TRIBUNE (Rep.) notes, "a treaty cannot be interpreted by a statute, and the PROVISIONAL JOURNAL (Ind.) adds that "the other party to the compact has yet to agree that the clause does not apply to American coastwise shipping."

There is, however, "always more than one method of disposing of a question such as this," observes the WASHINGTON POST (Ind.), one of the few papers favoring exemption. Since "the relations between the United States and Great Britain are of the friendliest character" there is "no reason why the two governments should not settle the question of canal tolls in a manner entirely satisfactory to both sides."

But before entering into the negotiations suggested by the POST, the GRAND RAPIDS HERALD (Rep.) thinks that Americans should "establish their own faith in their own point of view" and certainly there is nothing "in the codes on international honor compelling us to admit in advance that Britain is entitled to win such arbitration when we believe that she is entitled only to lose."

The PITTSBURGH PRESS (Ind.) on the other hand, apparently finds "nothing to arbitrate," since "the Senate has voted for it" and "we shall treat tolls to ourselves as an absurdity" and shall oppose "England's impudent demand that she shall use this American canal on the same terms as Americans themselves—without apology or qualification."

American opinion, the RICHMOND TIMES DISPATCH (Dem.) thinks, "has never been satisfied that it did just the right thing in yielding to the British view," and while to the BALTIMORE NEWS (Ind.) the Senate's action "is something of a gesture" still it is "a gesture toward establishment of a strong and respected Americanism."

But "whatever the abstract legal rights of the United States" in the controversy, the ATLANTA JOURNAL (Dem.) feels that the "treasonous issue" has been revived "at a moment highly inopportune, because, as the live amicably together."

BUFFALO NEWS (Rep.) says:

"It has brought into question the good faith of his country" in respect of treaty obligations. The NEWARK NEWS (Ind.) finds that "this country's reputation for good faith is very much below par throughout the world," said now, says the INDIANAPOLIS NEWS (Ind.) "we have this final stroke delivered on the eve of a conference from which the world is rightly expecting so much." However sound the position of the Senate may be in international law, in the opinion of the MINNEAPOLIS JOURNAL (Ind. Rep.) it is unquestionably "bad diplomacy" because it is "quite certain to prove obnoxious to Great Britain, one of the indispensable factors in any scheme of limiting armament," while she "is not in a position to help herself if we choose to exempt our coastwise vessels," the SALT LAKE TRIBUNE (Rep.) thinks "she is sure to retaliate in some manner." And, the BOSTON POST (Ind. Dem.) adds, "we and the world can ill afford to have any disquieting element of the sort injected into what humanity hopes will be a successful effort to relieve it of much of the burden of war."

At the same time, as the MILWAUKEE JOURNAL (Ind.) sets it, "we must go into the conference of great nations on this record of the Senate's attitude toward international good faith," and the DULUTH HERALD (Ind.) maintains that "for the nation that issued the invitation for the conference to preface it by a glaring exhibition of bad faith is to make a mockery of it in advance," while the PHILADELPHIA PUBLIC LEDGER (Ind.) detects "a feeling that we are breaking faith—that we are chilling friendliness, generosity and good-will at a time when we need these things."

In effect, the NEW YORK POST (Ind.) believes, we have injured "the prospects of world peace for the sake of a ship subsidy," because "the two nations that have least to quarrel over will enter the conference exacerbated by a new quarrel," at a time when "the success of the conference depends on the degree of friendship and cooperation between this country and Great Britain." The action of the Senate "is sustained by the House and the President," says the KANSAS CITY STAR (Ind.) "will class us with nations that fail to keep their word," and the ST. LOUIS POST DISPATCH (Ind.) asks: "If the United States can scrap a treaty, what assurance can any people find in any treaty? What nation can have any confidence in any other nation?"

The Idealism of Small States

General—Apropos of the meeting of the League of Nations a writer in the JOURNAL DE GENEVE asks the pertinent question: "Is it not the small nations who are 'est able to develop ideas of international justice?' Then he continues: "The big ones have all bigger appetites and more passionate interests Justice demands high-mindedness and disinterestedness. A federation of small free peoples who only demand their independence, seems to be the natural enemy of more human ideas, the ideal for the future theories of civilization. An Englishman, an American, a German, a Frenchman, a Russian, has always a thought at the back of his mind for the supremacy, the hegemony of his nation. Unconsciously he wants his people to be glorified, and believes in their superiority. A Dutchman, a Dane, or a Swiss has not this temptation, nor this illusion. They don't want to be Americanized, Anglicized, or Germanized. On the contrary they feed the advantage and the right of diversity. They are free in their ideas of nationality, race, confession and language. Switzerland has perhaps the most privileged position for four languages are spoken in her land, which has three religions and twenty-five communities. She knows best how to make friends and how to live amicably together."

"I see that other folks' vacation-time is no time for me to be taking a vacation," said Sprinkle-Blow. "Nancy and Nick. 'About the only thing for me to do is to wait until Christmas and take my vacation then."

"Christmas!" exclaimed Nick. "Why that's the time we need the most weather. Mr. Sprinkle-Blow. You've no idea how we count on it."

"Well," said Sprinkle-Blow thoughtfully. "I won't take any vacation then. After all, one may as well be doing something."

MARKET LEADERS PRAISE NEW QUOTATION SYSTEM

Madison—Agricultural statisticians and directors of market reports from the northern states, in convention here this week, are loud in their praise of Wisconsin in providing free market reports by telegraph, telephone and radio to the farmers and farm organizations of the state, newspapers and others interested.

The visitors visited the offices of the department of markets and saw how the market reports were received and sent out. They were especially interested in the newly developed radioone which permits a farmer at a small initial cost, to receive the markets at noon each day in his own home.

Leon M. Estabrook, associate chief of markets and estimates, Washington, D. C., was especially interested in the radioone. He declared Wisconsin is offering the farmers of the state a big step forward in the marketing of their stock and produce and predicted the farmers of other states, when they learn what is being done for the farmers of Wisconsin will demand the same service.

TELLS WHICH RISK BODY MUST SETTLE

Amendments to Compensation Act Make Authority of Commission More Definite

Madison—The industrial commission has sent out circular letters, calling attention to amendments to insurance provisions of the workmen's compensation act, which were effected by Chapter 451, Laws of 1921.

The most important of these amendments is one providing that contracts for compensation insurance shall be construed to grant full coverage, notwithstanding any agreement between the parties to the contrary, unless the industrial commission has, by written order, consented to insurance on part of the risk.

The purpose of this amendment is to eliminate disputes between insurance carriers, as to which one covered the particular part of the risk in which an accident occurred.

By a general order of the commission, the state and all of its political subdivisions, and all national and state banks, are permitted to insure their risk, in whole or in part, as they see fit, without further order of the commission. All private employers, however, must secure written permission from the commission before attempting to divide their risk between several companies or insuring part of the risk and carrying their risk on the balance.

TRAINING SCHOOL NOTES

Kaukauna—Miss Agnes Breene, an instructor in Wood County Training school for teachers spent last Friday here. Some very good suggestions were given by Miss Breene.

Burton Nelson, formerly city superintendent of schools in Racine, called at the training school in the interests of the Keystone View Co., Meadville, Pa.

At the monthly meeting of the training school board held last Thursday routine business was transacted. Mr. Hagman will attend the meeting of county supervising teachers and county superintendent on Thursday on Thursday. The entire group of teachers will spend Thursday morning visiting rural schools in Brown co.

The class in home nursing under the supervision of Miss Paddock of the Red Cross has fixed the hour of meeting at 10:30 in the morning each Tuesday. The work is being taken by the seniors and is credited toward the regular physiology and hygiene class.

The junior class in geography is working on an interesting project. Each member of the class has been assigned the task of writing to a chamber of commerce in one of the New England cities for first hand information regarding the industries of that city. It is expected that in this way more accurate knowledge may be gained about the New England states.

SPONGE SQUAD GOES ON USELESS RAIDS

Wild Tips Reach State Headquarters—"Evidence" Hard to Obtain at Times

Madison—It's one thing to be told of flagrant violations of the prohibition law but it's another thing to get sufficient evidence to convict. Officials of the prohibition commissioners department admit that they have been tipped off on any number of "open violations" but when they seek the "evidence" it is not to be found so easily.

Reports reached Madison recently of a "moonshine trust" being formed in Marathon co. After an investigation it was determined someone started the story who could not secure credit for a quantity of moonshine.

Reports reached Madison recently of a "moonshine trust" being formed in Marathon co. After an investigation it was determined someone started the story who could not secure credit for a quantity of moonshine.

Another report comes that an officer in Antigo who for a time was very active in the enforcement of the prohibition law was "let off" because he was driving trade from the community.

Still another report stated that moonshine, "white mule," home brew, etc., which was said to be very plentiful in the rural districts of Langlade and Shawano counties last

EVERYBODY WOULD BENEFIT BY CUT IN LIVING COSTS

Senator Copper Tells How Business Could be Placed
on its Feet Quickly

By Senator Copper
Special to the Post-Crescent
Washington—High prices today not only are preventing every effort of farmers, manufacturers and business men to come back to normal but are eating away the very roots of business and national prosperity.
There's no more opportune time to cut these excessive rates than right now. The railways' proposed wage reduction will net them a saving of $400,000,000 a year. That should be lopped off the freight rates.
A cut right now, coupled with the business stimulus of a rich harvest, would put every class of business back on its feet. But if the present rates are maintained, business can not recover from stagnation until spring—if at all.

Here's what freight rates are doing to you, to me, to everybody:
Hay, hide and sheep production is stifled.
Corn cannot be shipped with profit from many localities. Sheep must be shipped at a loss, if at all.
Thousands of bushels of potatoes and apples will rot in the fields this year, because it costs too much to get them to a place where they can be sold.
Freight rates have throttled the soft coal, building material and steel industries.
The packing industry is being driven into the ground. Canadian packers with the benefit of low freight rates are taking away our export meat trade.
The farm machinery industry is sleeping. Freight rates on the average add $48.12 to the cost of a binder, $72.04 to a header, $126.08 to a power hay press and $243.50 to a threshing machine.
Railways
Excessive rates are acting as a boomerang on the railways themselves.
High freight rates are one of the biggest factors in the unemployment wave. Freight rates have forced cutting down production.
Retail dealers are up against it, especially where they're dependent on farmer trade.
The farmer isn't making money. So he's not buying clothing, shoes or new implements.

CHINA BEGINS TO REFOREST LANDS

Believe Reforestation Will Prevent Floods and Provide Famine Relief

Washington. — "The Shantung Award," made famous since the Peace Conference and sure to come up for a big part of the discussion at the limitation of arms conference in Washington in November, is being reforested.

This activity is set forth in a report made public by the American Forestry Association, which has just received from Dean John Reiser a statement on forestry progress in China. Reiser is dean of the College of Agriculture and Forestry of the University of Nankin.

His report says that following the third flood disaster of the year in the Anhwei province three great railroads of the flooded provinces have taken up reforestation as a means of saving themselves and for providing market for the future.

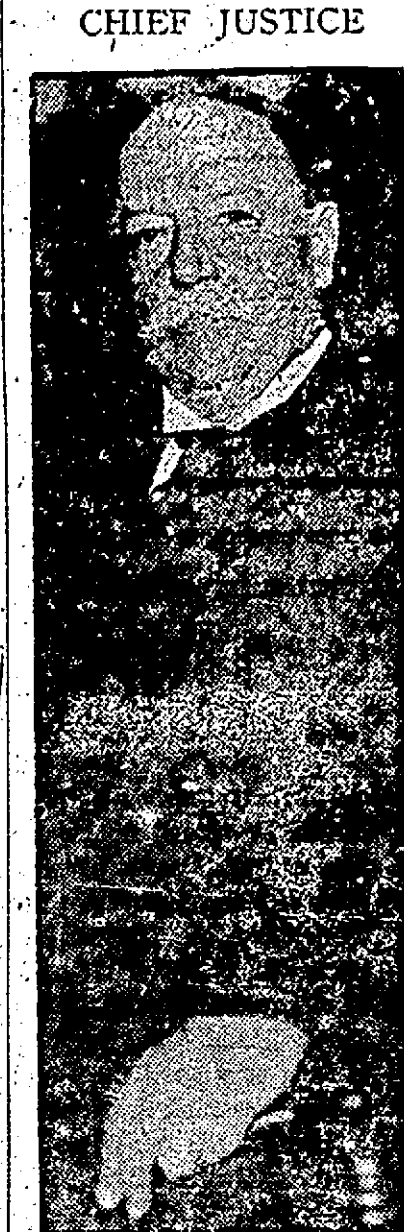

"Devastation in the Anhwei province," says Charles Lathrop Pack, president of the American Forestry Association in giving out the report of Dean Reiser, "may be understood when we consider that the flooded area is twice the area of Massachusetts, or about 15,000 square miles. The population of the Bay State is around four million people, which is a million and a half less than the sufferers in the flooded areas. The deforested condition of China is the cause not only of the floods but of most of her famines in that country."

"The big development," says Dean Reiser's statement, "has been in Shantung province. This work was organized by Mr. Lin, of the Forestry Department of the College of Agriculture and Forestry of the University of Nankin, an American Missionary Institution, which loaned him for the work."

"A Forest Service has been established with a Chief Forester and seven assistants. The first planting season saw the organization of three forestry stations, the establishment of three nurseries with plans for two more for the following season, over 350,000 trees planted on 2,000 mow of land and an additional 3,000 mow seeded."

"The railways are engaged in reforestation work looking forward to supplying their own ties and other timbers used in railroad construction and maintenance. Several other railways are contemplating similar development. The budgets are voted by the various railway administrations interested."

"With her floods, China is an example of the world of the need of reforestation. Arbor Day in China is a national holiday now, and it is observed in schools and by high officials."

Jackson, Minn.—Frank Marek and a Chicago attorney found the former's wife and three children here after a 14 month search. Mrs. Marek disappeared from Chicago and her husband never heard from her in all that time, he told police here. She was found with a man giving his name as Rudolph Raha, who was arrested on a statutory charge. Mrs. Marek said she would not return to her husband. She was located through an inquiry to a Chicago insurance company.

WOOLLEY BACKED BY M'ADOO FORCES

By Harry Hunt
Washington.—McAdoo for president in 1924 forces in the Democratic party are expected to try to make Robert W. Woolley national chairman at the meeting of the Democratic National Committee scheduled to open in St. Louis Nov. 1.

This means that they will try to oust George White, the present chairman and close friend of James M. Cox, who was defeated for president by Warren G. Harding.
Woolley was director of publicity for the Democratic National Committee in 1916. Later he served as director of the mint and interstate commerce commissioner under the Wilson administration.
Many high Democrats favor McAdoo's candidacy in 1924. It is decliningly known. These include some former members of the Wilson cabinet. The fight, if it comes, will be only a continuation of a tilt that has flared up intermittently ever since White became chairman.
Selected by Cox
When Cox was asked to pick a chairman for the committee last fall he selected White from a long list of aspirants.
The opinion prevailed that White didn't want the job and that he'd resign as soon as the election was over, but White stuck and to the present

he's given no indication that he intends to resign.
Acting on the assumption that White would resign, some elements began to boom Woolley for the chairmanship at a meeting of the executive committee here right after the election. A tilt of considerable intensity developed.
But the meeting ended in a vote of confidence being given to White.
Fight Carried On
Since that time the Woolley supporters have been waging their fight quietly, it is reported, and marshaling forces for a smash at the November meeting.

Some say Woolley can't become chairman because he isn't a member of the Democratic National Committee. But neither was White when he was appointed. An Ohio member of the committee gracefully resigned and White was put in his place, thus making him eligible.
Similar maneuvers could be employed in Woolley's behalf.

Juvenile Delinquency Is On The Wane In Appleton

Judge Spencer Blames Parental Neglect When Youngsters Go Wrong

That a reaction from the moral laxity coincident with war and post-war conditions among juvenile offenders is beginning to make itself felt in Appleton is the belief of local authorities who deal with all classes of transgressors.

Only a very few offenders under the age of 17 have been brought to the attention of the police department since January 1, said Chief of Police George T. Prim. Formal charges were made against only two or three of these and the others were turned over to municipal court which placed them under probationary measures.

A survey of the police blotter since the first of the year showed that the youngest miscreants were 17 and 18 years old. Three of them were girls, one of whom was returned to her mother, one was returned to the state industrial school for girls and one was turned over to Appleton Woman's club which found a home for her so that she might have a fresh start in life.

The charges made against the boys were petty larceny, flipping freight cars and incorrigibility.

Judge A. M. Spencer said that the Judge Spencer said that he very seldom thinks of sending a boy or girl under age to a state institution unless that is the only alternative. He prefers finding a good home for them or placing them under the care of religious institutions provided for such children. By so doing, the judge said, in most cases the children are taught to see the folly of wrongdoing and when only old enough may start out in life with their name unsullied by the stigma which a sent-

AILING FOLKS NOW GETTING ALMOST IMMEDIATE RELIEF

Garren's Tonic Being Praised Beyond Measure by Grateful People from Coast to Coast

Judging from the many voluntary testimonials which people all over the country are giving to Garren's Tonic this wonderful preparation is doing more good for sickly, weak and run-down people than anything ever heard of.

"I had been dreadfully weak, nervous, and run down" most of these folks say in explaining their condition. And invariably the next thing they say "I began to notice improvement after the first few doses," and by the time they took a few bottles of Garren's Tonic they were well.

A great many of the cases reported are almost unbelievable. People who had suffered the tortures of stomach distress, nervousness, rheumatism, headaches, constipation and countless other ailments for years seem to get relief from the very start.

For years authorities on health and hygiene have contended that it is not impossible to get quick and lasting relief from these troubles if only the right combination of the recognized medicines of merit could be produced to overcome the strange conditions which exist in the human system.

Now, from the way Garren's Tonic is working almost miraculous changes in the condition of sick, weak, run-down and suffering people, it seems the long looked for combination has been found.

Garren's Tonic is sold in Appleton by the Schlitz Bros. Co., in Kaukauna by E. A. Meyer, in Greenville by H. H. Schulze, in Dale by Abends Pharmacy, in Bear Creek by John W. Stattler, in Seymour by S. G. McCord, and by the leading druggists in every city.

War or Civilization?

Which Shall We Have?

Prosperity cannot return while nations live in mistrust of each other.

The money devoted to armaments must be diverted to commerce if the world is ever again to reach a normal state.

While Czechoslovakia keeps a standing army of 200,000 the price of bread you buy will be higher. While France has an army on the Rhine, the money used for its upkeep cannot be used in European business. While the European market is in chaos, American goods cannot be sold there. All of this means unemployment and hard times here.

A free booklet has just been issued giving the results of a careful investigation of the relation of European problems to American business. This booklet is the report of a committee of leading business men who investigated the situation for the Chamber of Commerce of the United States.

APPEAL TO RURAL MAIL PATRONS TO WATCH MAIL BOXES

Annual inspection of Rural Routes is Started by Postmaster Keller

Postmaster Gustave Keller started annual inspection of rural mail boxes Friday to make the report required by the national postal department.

Every box on every rural route out of Appleton will be inspected by Mr. Keller. Sometime ago, an announcement of the inspection was made and it is hoped that every patron has inspected his box and made any changes necessary so that it now measures up to requirements. The local post-office would like to have a 100 per cent perfect report in regard to the condition and standard of mail receptacles used but this is possible only if patrons will cooperate.

Poor or inconvenient mail receptacles hamper the rural delivery service and are a source of irritation to the patron and the carrier alike. An instance is mentioned where the flag on a rural mailbox would not stay in position and oftentimes letters placed in the box for mailing were not picked up by the carrier because the flag was down and he did not know the box contained outgoing letters. It is little things of this sort that the inspection is intended to correct as well as to take care of other matters of rural delivery which may be of greater importance.

A letter is being sent by the post-office to every rural patron in which is set forth the requirements of a mail

box. The box first of all must be one which the postal department has approved. It must have a signal and the signal must work properly. Every box should have a good lid. If mail is placed in boxes without lids or with broken lids it is apt to become lost or damaged.

The box should bear the patron's name in plain, indecipherable letters, and should face the road so that the open end is easily accessible to the carrier. The box should also be at a proper distance from the road. There is a danger of having it too far away for the convenience of the carrier and so close that it will be in danger of being struck by passing vehicles. This matter should be carefully considered in placing the box.

The box should be at the proper height from the ground so that it may be reached conveniently from the carrier's conveyance and should be placed at a location convenient in every other respect. Postal requirements provide that mail boxes must be on the right side of the road as traveled by the carrier.

TUNISON HEAD OF ADVERTISING CLUB

Plan of Forming Advertising Clubs in Valley is Highly Commended

Harold C. Tunison, advertising manager for the Pettibone-Peabody Co., was elected president of the Appleton Advertising club at its first meeting in Hotel Appleton Thursday noon.

Howard Young, advertising manager of the Gloudehans-Gage Co., was elected vice president; C. E. Mullen of the Geenen Dry Goods Co., secretary and Carleton Saecker, treasurer. Walter Distelhorst, advertising manager of the First Wisconsin National bank of Milwaukee, was the principal speaker. He commended the plan of forming advertising clubs in Fox river valley cities and said that delegates to the convention of Associated Advertising Clubs of the World in Milwaukee next July will receive an impressive message from this valley if the clubs are formed.

Mr. Distelhorst described the annual convention and the work which the associated advertising clubs is doing. It is probable that Judge Charles J. Orison of Indianapolis, president of the associated advertising clubs, will be the speaker at the next meeting of the local club, Nov. 3. Much interest is being manifested in the club and attendance was good.

Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Gintz leave for Omro Saturday, where they will spend the weekend with friends.

GLASS OF SALTS CLEANS KIDNEYS

If Your Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers You, Drink Lots of Water

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salts which removes the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys will act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this, also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache.

Request for a new trial in municipal court in the case of William Bloomer against Ben C. Koepke was made by Attorney Mark Catlin acting for the plaintiff instead of by Attorney Claude G. Cannon as was stated in The Post-Crescent of Wednesday. Mr. Catlin's request was granted by Judge Spencer but Mr. Cannon, acting for the defendant, then appealed the case to state supreme court. The supreme court affirmed the action of Judge Spencer so the case comes back here for a new trial in the higher branch of municipal court.

MALLOCH HURLS FUN SHAFTS AT BUSINESS SINNERS

Two Hundred Men and Women
Enjoy Address at Commerce
Chamber Forum

"The only time some men say 'well done' is when they order a steak."
"The optimist sees a light in the darkness where there is no light, and the pessimist comes along and blows it out."

"Only one referee can call you out, and that's yourself."
"The man who says he's down and out never got up."

"Very few of our young men are pinched for speeding on their way to work."

With the above and many other statements and stories Chicago poet and humorist, kept 200 people laughing for more than an hour at the monthly forum banquet of the chamber of commerce in Elk hall Thursday evening. Many ladies were present as guests of members.

Speaking on the "Seven Sinners in Business," Mr. Malloch drove home his points, each one cleverly directed at a sinner.

He was accused of being a miser, a liar, a gossip, a grouch, a quitter, a pessimist, loafer and a fend for work.

"The friendly smile is a bond of friendship that pays large dividends," Malloch said. "Too often we lose friends for the sake of a dollar. The most constant flatterer is the most constant liar. The liar manufactures lies, but the gossip peddles them around. The less you talk, the more you hear and the less you know. More parrots had their necks wrung than owls ever did. Some people who put two and two together insist that it makes 22 instead of 4."

"The gossip is the submarine of conversation, and men are worse gossip than women. Opportunity knocks at the door, but many men don't hear because they are doing so much knocking themselves. Opportunity knocks but once, however."

"We ought not to reach up with one hand for help without reaching down with the other to help another."

"The brother to gossip is the grouch," said the speaker. "You can't get much heat out of a fire without a draft and you can't get much work out of a man without appreciation. Some men are like the cockroach—it isn't going to be well with them no matter where they go. The worst man in the office who brings his home grouch to the store or office. Don't talk about your home affairs at the office. The neighbors will attend to that."

What is an Optimist?
Mr. Malloch had more definitions for the optimist and pessimist than any book of bright thoughts ever contained. Some of them were so brilliantly funny that it took several minutes to quiet the house before the speaker could spring his next.

"A pessimist never observes the weather except when it's going to rain," said the humorist. "He never gets any sunshine because he goes through life with his umbrella up. In winter he wants summer, and in summer he wants winter. A pessimist never led a charge. The optimist, in going through a jungle, would get three cheers for the way he went. The optimist asks which team won; the pessimist which team lost. The optimist is the baldheaded man who buys a bottle of hair restorer and a comb from a baldheaded barber. Don't go looking for trouble, but don't be so much of an optimist that you become a pessimist. Everybody is looking for the reason for the depression in some far off place, but it may be right at home. The doctor and the barber complain, but their business is poor because of Christian Science and the safety razor. Very few promoters call at my office promoting the general welfare."

The quitter was described as the man who starts something he can't finish. The boy who wins, he said, is the one who sticks to the job he has stuck on. He told the story of an Irish soldier in a hospital whom the doctor wanted to move out so as to give some other wounded man with a chance to recover the bed occupied by the Irishman. The nurse objected.

Two Much Efficiency
"Loafers are men who never got started trying," remarked the humorist. "The efficiency serum never works on a loafer. The expert is the man who can't do the thing himself, but for a consideration will show you how."

Efficiency systems were the target of some of the jokes, because all the time is spent on the system and too

CONVERT OLD MILL INTO POWERHOUSE FOR INTERLAKE CO.

Huge Generator is Being Installed in Old Ground Wood Mill—Repair Wheels

The Interlake Pulp & Paper Co. is converting its ground wood mill on the west side of the Fox river immediately south of the Wisconsin tissue mill into an electric power plant which will be in operation within the next 30 days.

An addition, 20 by 30 feet, has been added to the west side of the building in which a large generator is being installed. The work of installation is temporarily delayed by the trimming down of the main shaft of the new machine so it will connect with the main drive of the waterwheels.

steel towers will convey the current to the main plant of the company on the opposite side of the river. Two of the towers are already in place and the concrete foundations are about completed for the others.

The generator will be operated by four waterwheels which have been given a general overhauling. The new power house will furnish auxiliary power for the main plant and will be a valuable acquisition to its waterpower.

With the exception of one week in August when it was down because of low water, the plant of the Interlake Pulp & Paper Co. has been in continuous operation since May 23. While its business does not fluctuate as much as that of other mills because its product is sold to paper manufacturers it nevertheless is conscious of a steady increase in business.

That the paper and pulp business of Appleton is getting back to a normal condition is also shown by the daily shipments which are now more than double what they were six months ago.

Says His Prescription Has Powerful Influence Over Rheumatism

Discoverer Tells Schlitz Bros. Co., Voigt's Drug Store, Union Pharmacy—and All Good Druggists Not to Take a Cent of Anyone's Money Unless Allenrhu Completely Banishes All Rheumatic Pains and Twinges.

Mr. James H. Allen suffered for years with rheumatism. Many times this terrible disease left him helpless and unable to work.

He finally decided, after years of ceaseless study, that no one can be free from rheumatism until the accumulated impurities, commonly called uric acid deposits, were dissolved in the joints and muscles and expelled from the body.

With this idea in mind he consulted physicians, made experiments and finally compounded a prescription that quickly and completely banished every sign and symptom of rheumatism from his system.

He freely gave his discovery to others who took it with what might be called marvelous success. After years of urging he decided to let sufferers everywhere know about his discovery through the newspapers.

Schlitz Bros. Co., Voigt's Drug Store and Union Pharmacy have been appointed agents for Allenrhu in this vicinity with the understanding that they will freely return the purchase money on the first two bottles to all who state they received no benefit.

FORMER VALLEY LEAGUE CATCHER HERE NEXT SUNDAY

Fred Sengstock, Once With New London, Now Playing With Barnstormers

Baseball fans who travel out to Grandt park Sunday afternoon to see the Barnstormers will see Fritz Sengstock, former Fox River Valley catcher, in action with the big circuit players. Sengstock is catching for the Barnstormers and is slated to work in Sunday's game.

Either Shanck or Gearin will pitch for the Barnstormers, according to word from Milwaukee. The visiting team is made up of several American Association stars taken from other teams. One of the men is Shinnars, a Milwaukee boy who had a good season in the minor leagues. Fans generally believe Shinnars will be shining in the major leagues before long. He is a heavy hitter, a good fielder and a fast man on bases.

Owner Brandt will strengthen his team as much as possible for the Brewer onslaught. Schultz will be on the hill, which means that the Brewers will not find the going very easy. Brandt is making an effort to add hitting strength to his team. He realizes that the only chance he will have of winning is to hit the ball hard and therefore he is concentrating his efforts on an attempt to find sluggers.

The Brewers will line up as follows: Lober, rf; Shinnars, cf; Hauser, 1b; Covington, 2b; Kirkham, lf; Lutzke, 3b; Forsyth, ss; Sengstock or Clark, c; Shanck or Gearin, p.

Saturday, the two contenders for the championship of the North Atlantic fishing fleet—the Gloucester schooner Blue Nose, will hop off in the first race for sailing honors. The hopes of New England rest on Capt. Marty Welch and his sleek craft. The Yankee fishermen are dead anxious to win again this year because the Canadians ruled out the vessel that had been primed for the event.

Tonight, Lew Tandler and Rocky Kanas exchange wallops in a New York ring. Both of the lightweights carry a punch and, as there is little love lost between the pair, it should be quite a scrap. Kansas sort of dropped out of public eye since his flaccid fight with Benny Leonard but the Buffalo Italian is of a pretty rugged type and Tandler will, most likely, bump into some sturdy opposition.

Babe Ruth has turned from a popular idol into the laughing stock of the baseball world. The King of Swat's attitude against Judge Landis is getting him in bad with the sporting public. Even some of the scribes who sang his praises to the skies during the past season are smugging him up with a nasty pen. Landis is letting Ruth go as far as he likes but when the Judge gets started, Bambino will probably be sorry that he ever heard of a barnstorming trip. Some of the New York gamblers are betting even money that the Yankee outfielder won't be playing professional baseball next year.

The Louisville Colonels have called off their baseball invasion of Cuba. The American association champions only pulled down $554 apiece in the past season series with Baltimore. This sort of put the crimp under the Cuban trip as the island promoters would not offer a flat guarantee, demanding that the Louisville team play on a percentage basis. Isn't it funny how the bottom falls out of everything when the almighty dollar isn't plentiful.

$200,000 GOVERNMENT SHARE OF BIG SERIES

New York—Although it will take a cornucopia of taxes and levies to determine how much the federal government is to get out of the profits of the world series a conservative estimate is that the total will reach $200,000 at least, not including the amusement tax of $99,000 already collected. Of the $500,000 and more that went into the treasuries of the two clubs, the leagues and the advisory council, close to $150,000 will be turned over to the collector of internal revenue. As the profits of the two New York clubs during the seasons were high the excess profits tax on the world series share will be correspondingly high.

As for the players, the total of their individual taxes on world series income will approach $30,000. The individual normal tax of the Giants' share, together with the additional surtax on their incomes, will yield the government about $10,000. The loss will contribute about $5,000, the Cleveland and Pittsburgh players about $1,700 and the players of the two St. Louis clubs about $1,200.

FOURTH AND FIFTH WARD SOCCER TEAMS WINNERS

Part games were played in the Y.M.C.A. soccer league Thursday afternoon. Lincoln school team walloped the Fourth district team, 6 to 2 on the Lincoln school grounds while the Third ward squad went down before the Fifth ward, 6 to 4. Both games were largely attended. Every team in the league, except First district, has been defeated.

The next group of games will be played Tuesday, Oct. 25, when Third district meets Lincoln at Franklin field and Third plays Fourth in the Fifth ward.

HIGHS EXPECTING STIFF BATTLE ON GREEN BAY FIELD

Zussman Will be Used at End Saturday With Roach as Quarterback

The local high school grid stars will journey to Green Bay, Saturday, to take on the West Green Bay eleven. The Appleton game will be the feature game of the afternoon. East Green Bay will lock horns with Menominee, Mich., at 1:30 and the Appleton game will be played at 3 o'clock. Both games will be played at Hagemaster park.

The Orange and Blue is expecting a hard game as the Bay teams have always forced Appleton to extend itself in order to put over a win. Appleton defeated West Green Bay in 1919 and 1920 by close margins.

Cochran Vincent has been drilling his men in open plays and in perfecting his forward pass attack. The highs showed up to good advantage in last Saturday's game when they held their much heavier adversaries and defeated the Lawrence freshmen.

Reports from the Bay city are to the effect that the West side eleven has been going good his season and is confident of adding Appleton's scalp to his list.

John Roach, captain of the highs will start at quarter again this Saturday. Last week he piloted the team well and showed excellent generalship in calling his plays. He is considered one of the best kickers in this section of the state and his foe will be expected to get the highs out of many a tight place.

Zussman will start at end while the rest of the line will be the same as in other games. Quite a number of Appleton fans are expecting to make the trip by automobile.

ACCOMMODATE 14,000 AT HOMECOMING GAME

Madison, Wis.—Work has just been completed on 4,000 additional concrete seats to the Camp Randall football stadium here, which will be used during the Homecoming game Oct. 29 when Wisconsin meets Minnesota. The stadium now seats 14,000 in its permanent concrete sections.

Preparations will be made by the athletic department of the university to handle a crowd of 22,000 at the Homecoming game. Over 8,000 spectators will be seated in the wooden grand stand, and in temporary bleachers, to be constructed.

The increased price of tickets to $3 and $2.50 for better sections of the stadium, is not expected to result in a decreased attendance. Athletic department officials say, however, that they will be able to accommodate all who wish to see the game.

Boxer Studies While Fighting

JIMMY KELLY PUGILIST AND STUDENT.

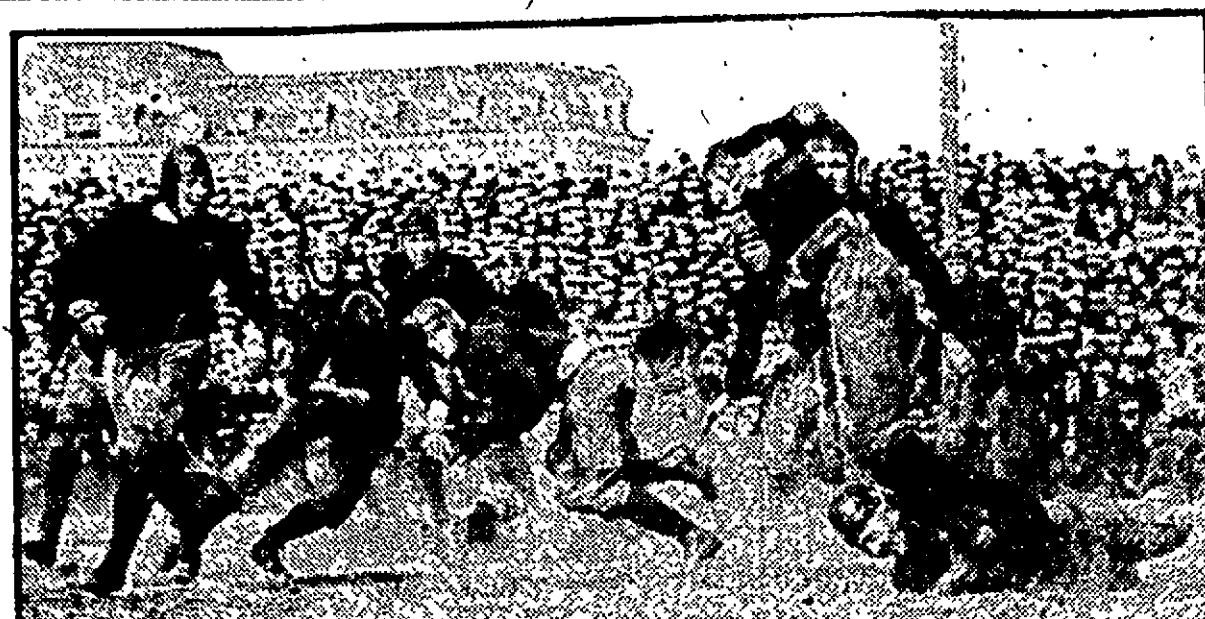

Notre Dame—Education and prize-fighting are strange bed fellows. It isn't often that you find a first-class prize fighter who is acquainted with Aristotle and Blackstone. And it isn't often you find a man totting a college degree into the squared circle to be introduced as a contender for the lightweight title.

But Jimmie Kelly, flashy Chicago bantam, who gave Pat More a run at Kenosha, Wis., last spring and who has been kicking the best of them around Chicago, has taken to slogging books along with left hooks. Jimmie has enrolled in the school of journalism at the University of Notre Dame and intends to go four rounds for his degree.

"It's great stuff out here," says Kelly, as he hurries across the campus from his news editing class, "and I'm going to be in better condition this winter than I ever was. Regular study hours, regular training hours and plenty of sleep."

"I'm not going to quit fighting. I'm in the game to stay. Just want to learn another game, so when some referee counts ten over me I can hop out of the ring into a job."

JESS-JACK FIGHT IN JERSEY JULY 4

By United Press Leased Wire Chicago—Jack Dempsey, world's champion heavyweight, and Jess Willard will fight to the finish in Jersey City next July 4, according to Tex Rickard promoter, here Friday.

Rickard said the first steps have been taken to amend the New Jersey boxing law to allow a referee's decision and that he believes decision fights will be allowed by the time the big bout is staged.

Rickard conferred with Dempsey while here. The champion, with Jack Kearns, leaves for Minneapolis to night where the heavyweight has a vaudeville engagement Sunday.

MICHIGAN AGGIES HAVE RESPECT FOR MARQUETTE

Egt Lansing, Mich.—Having come through the grueling University of Michigan game on Saturday with only one serious injury, Bert Barron, coach of the Michigan Aggie football machine, is starting work this week in preparation for the Marquette game at Milwaukee a week from Saturday.

A minor game is scheduled with Kalamazoo normal college for Oct. 22, but interest in the Aggie game is already centered in the Marquette trip. Realization that the Wisconsin team will present one of the strongest lineups the Farmers will have to meet this season is apparent in the instructions coaches are handing out this week. Marquette is being compared favorably with Notre Dame, and expectations of a bitter fight when the teams lock horns on Oct. 29 are leading the Aggie coaches to make every effort to whip the squad into shape for the meeting.

MARSHAL FOCH TO WATCH YALE-PRINCETON GAME

Princeton, N. J.—Marshal Foch has accepted an invitation to attend the Princeton-Yale football game at New Haven Nov. 12. It was announced tonight by the secretary of Princeton university. He will be accompanied by Col. Frank D'Olier, former commander of the American Legion. Marshal Foch will sit on the Princeton side during half of the game and on the Yale side the other half.

MENASHA'S BALL PARK IS PAYING FOR ITSELF

Menasha's municipally owned baseball park is a self-sustaining institution, the city officials were told by City Clerk John F. DeCaro, who is treasurer of the recreational commission. The city had received $12,000 as profits from operation of the park and nearly all of that sum came from baseball games.

Plans are being made for a big bazooka to be held next spring to raise money for the park fund. It is planned to erect a huge grandstand and have it ready for the opening of the 1922 baseball season.

MINNESOTA REGRETS WILLIAMS' ACTION

Gopher Coach's Trick Numbering System Has Embarrassed University

Chicago—Profuse apologies have been made to all western conference universities by the committee on intercollegiate sports of the University of Minnesota for Coach Williams' trick numbering of players in the game with Northwestern.

The conference rules this year require that all players be numbered. In the Northwestern game, Williams' men carried four numbers, such as 3538: 5335 and so on, so that it was

5,000 BUCKEYES TO SEE TEAM PLAY MICHIGAN

Columbus, O.—More than 5,000 followers of the Ohio State university football team will go to Ann Arbor this weekend, to witness the Michigan-Ohio state clash there on Saturday, according to Ohio State athletic officials, who on Thursday said that many tickets had been disposed of.

Two special trains are scheduled to leave here Friday night. Seven other specials will leave Saturday morning. Many other rooters are planning to go by automobile.

The Buckeye team will leave Friday night, arriving in Ann Arbor early on Saturday.

LAWRENCE READY FOR STIFF BATTLE WITH BELOIT TEAM

First Conference Game of Season Will be Played Here Saturday Afternoon

With promise of a dry fast field for tomorrow's fight with Beloit college, Lawrence football players are keyed up for the scrap. The last heavy workout was given the men on Thursday and Friday was devoted to signal drill and just enough work to keep the players in prime condition.

Beloit will arrive here early Saturday morning and will go into seclusion until game time. Beloit has high hopes of downing Lawrence this year. Its sterling showing against Northwestern university has given the team a lot of confidence which even injuries have failed to dampen. Carlton college thoroughly defeated the State Line school but Beloit sent a crippled team into that game.

A most decided improvement in Lawrence play will be noticed Saturday. The coach has been working the men exceedingly hard and are quite well satisfied with their showing. Lawrence has developed very slowly this season but it is now reaching its real form and will give Beloit a hard fight. The fact that this is a conference game also will put more pep into the men.

The game is to be started at 2:30. Arrangements have been made for seating more than 1,000 fans.

HOW TO BANISH PILES

Thousands Bless Dr. Leonhardt, the Physician Who Discovered a Common Sense Remedy

If you think that the surgeon's knife is the only method of escape from the misery of piles, it's because you haven't heard of the new treatment known as Dr. Leonhardt's HEM-ROID.

The Doctor's treatment is internal. By experimenting for years he discovered the exact cause of piles and then went further and compounded a remedy that would remove the cause.

Dr. Leonhardt wants every sufferer to benefit by his discovery and so that there will be no doubting or delay—all druggists are authorized to sell HEM-ROID with guarantee that it will be as stated or money back.

On that honorable basis every sufferer should secure a package of Dr. Leonhardt's HEM-ROID today.

CATARRAH DEAFNESS MAY BE OVERCOME

If you have Catarrhal Deafness or are even just a little hard of hearing or have head noises go to your druggist and get 1 ounce of Parmit (double strength), and add to it 1/4 pint of hot water, and a little granulated sugar. Take 1 tablespoonful four times a day.

This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should open, breathing become easy and the mucus stop dripping into the throat. It is easy to prepare, costs little and is pleasant to take. Any one losing hearing or who has Catarrhal Deafness or head noises should give this prescription a trial.

They were made to retail in the most exclusive apparel shops of the country, at the high prices you would expect to pay. Every coat came from a manufacturer of high standing in the garment world—and the quality is PETTIBONE QUALITY, such as you expect here.

The Wolf Within
When a man speaks out and tells me what an honest guy he's been and how spotless is the record of his deals with other men I dislike to disbelieve him. But I've made it quite the rule to look a little deeper for the wolf within the wool.

He who shouts the Amen loudest She who chants the longest prayer In the House of God whenever We may meet to worship there Seem to wield the tongue divinely But it is a fickle tool And oft betrays the presence of The wolf within the wool.

When I heard some people singing "Oh America, my land!" And then when Kaiser William Seemed to have the upper hand They began an agitation With a lusty cry for peace I somehow felt the presence of The wolf beneath the fleece.

Not alone in these few cases Over which I often grieve But in many others also There is much of make believe And yet with much reluctance Have I learned in life's hard school To detect the ugly presence of The wolf within the wool.

Here's One on Us
A man moved from near Eau Claire to a farm near New England, N. D. Some years later a traveling salesman from Wisconsin spent a day in that town. He had been on the road a long time and told a merchant he would be delighted to see a man from good old Wisconsin. Just then the former Eau Claire man drove past to the elevator with a load of wheat. The merchant pointed him out to the salesman who hurried after the wagon and got to the elevator just as the farmer was climbing down off the seat. "Aren't you a Wisconsin man?" asked the salesman heartily. The farmer stared at him jelly and then shook his head. "No," he said. "I'm a human being."

Rehabilitating
The plumbers and glaziers have been busy this week fixing up the furnace and windows of the City Hall. The panes of glass were nearly ready to drop out of many of the sash and paint had almost disappeared. Now they are greatly improved. The furnace has been taken apart and the joints repacked as it was leaking badly.

Epitaph
Here lies a goof Whose ivory roof Told him he starred at Sprouting: He tripped and fell, And now is in - well, Forget it! It isn't worth Printing.

Beauty is only skin deep but wit goes clear to the bone. That's why your help is needed by Heck.

Sam Says:
Sometimes a man's better half becomes his better three-fourths unless he gives no quarter.

Please Be Plain
POLICE GET A D. AND D. VICTIM
—Headline in Menominee Herald-Leader—
We will sing you a song of the Five Cent cigar— The sturdy cigar with a thrill; The five-cent leaf long ago disappeared The nickel cigar is here still. HECK.

THE flavor of meat depends largely on the quality and proper cooking. High grade tender cuts of meat should be cooked at a much higher temperature than the cheaper grades of meat. Tough meat is the result of careless cooking and buying. More time given to the selection of proper meats will eliminate many disappointments when a person expects real tender meat and receives cheap and usually tough meat.

Hopfensperger Brothers Meat Markets

THE MARKETS WHERE SATISFACTION IS GUARANTEED

On account of the present unemployment situation and working conditions in general, we have decided to cut meat prices for this sale far below any previous meat prices in many years, and we feel that it is the duty of every housewife in this vicinity to attend this sale which will enable and encourage us to continue such low prices. The Hopfensperger Brothers Markets have always been the first to reduce prices, and, in doing so, have forced others to come down. Do you realize what you would be paying for meat today if it were not for our continuous advertising and keeping informed just what prices were right and what you should pay? If you appreciate real bargains, good service and real quality meat, you will grab your market basket Saturday morning and shop at our markets.

A Mere Trifle

TOM, LET'S GO SOME PLACE TONIGHT - WE HAVEN'T BEEN OUT TOGETHER FOR OVER A WEEK -

NO, NOT TONIGHT I'M KIND OF TIRED - I HAD A STRENUOUS DAY -

BANG!

I SUPPOSE THAT WAS SOME OF YOUR HOME BREW!

I HOPE IT ALL BLEW UP!

NO GREAT DAMAGE - JUST THE HOT WATER BOILER EXPLODED!
